

Laodicea:

Laos - laity or people

Diece - Means decision or

Greek: - “dine” deipnein

This was the evening meal; the main meal of the day; people lingered over it, for the day’s work was done.

It was the “deipnon”, the evening meal, that Christ would share with the man who answered His knock, this is not a hurried meal, Instead this was a meal where people lingered in fellowship. If a man will open the door, Jesus Christ will come in and linger long with him.”