

The Old Nature is called:

- The flesh
- The old man
- The outward man

The New Nature is called:

The Spirit
The new man
The inward man

(2 Cor.2:15, 2Cor.4:16, Rom.6:6, Eph.4:22-24, Col.3:9-10)

A dark boat is silhouetted against a deep blue, textured sea at night. The boat has a cabin with windows and a mast. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.
