Ninus, also known as Nimrod, the most ancient of Assyrian kings mentioned in history, performed great actions. Being naturally of a warlike disposition, and ambitious of glory that results from a warlike disposition, and ambitious of glory that results from valour, he armed considerable number of young men that were brave and vigorous like himself, trained them up a long time in laborious exercises and hardships, and by means accustomed to them to bear fatigues of war, and to face dangers with intrepidity.

HISTORIAN DIODORUS SICULUS

Vs 9 – He was a mighty hunter of men,
against the Lord; therefore it is said,
“Like Nimrod the mighty hunter of men
against the Lord.”

So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

REVELATION 17:3

“The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast.

REVELATION 17:12

“We are grateful to the Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subjected to the lights of publicity during those years.

DAVID ROCKEFELLER

But, the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries."

DAVID ROCKEFELLER

“We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the new world order.”
