We proclaim the Gospel to the Jew first
and also to the Gentile,
and equip others to do the same.

Jesus in the Feast of Tabernacles

On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.” But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

John 7:37-39

“For I will pour out water on the thirsty land and streams on the dry ground;
I will pour out My Spirit on your offspring, and My blessing on your descendants”
Isaiah 44:3

Therefore many from the crowd, when they heard this saying, said, “Truly this is the Prophet.” Others said, “This is the Christ.” But some said, “Will the Christ come out of Galilee? Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?” So there was a division among the people because of Him.

John 7:40-43

The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

“Hosanna!

‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!’

The King of Israel!”

John 12:12-13

Please save (Hoshiah-na), for Your sake, our G-d! Please save!

Please save (Hoshiah-na), for Your sake, our Creator! Please save!

Please save (Hoshiah-na), for Your sake, our Redeemer! Please save!

Please save (Hoshiah-na), for Your sake, our Attender! Please save!

Brothers, my heart's deepest desire and my prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation; for I can testify to their zeal for God. But it is a zeal not according to knowledge; for they are unaware of God's way of making people righteous.
