

A dramatic scene of a massive blue wave crashing over a sandy beach. The water is a deep, vibrant blue, and the wave is curling over, creating a sense of immense power and scale. The sun is shining brightly from behind the wave, creating a strong backlight effect and illuminating the scene with a warm, golden light. The word "EXODUS" is overlaid in large, bold, blue letters, centered horizontally across the middle of the image. The letters are a solid blue color, matching the water, and have a slight 3D effect. The overall composition is dynamic and visually striking, with a focus on the natural beauty and power of the ocean.

Rivers – Greek word – ποταμός – pot a mos – means torrent or floods, water that overflows its banks.

If we believe in Jesus, it is not what we gain but what He pours through us that really counts. God purpose is not simply to make us beautiful plump grapes, but to make grap-es so that He may squeeze the sweetness out of us. Our spiritual life cannot be measured by success as the world measures it, but only by what God pours through us and we cannot measure that at all. Oswald Chambers

¹⁶When He had been baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him.
